

TWINNING NEWS

Aylsham - May 2015

This year's visit

Another great visit from our friends from La Chaussée St Victor is over far too quickly. This year we are celebrating fifteen years of our Twinning Link. An excellent programme thoroughly entertained everybody who took part. A visit to Langham Glass gave us the opportunity to see the wonderful skill of the people there in making animals and birds in glass and also using glass blowing to make wine glasses. After lunch at Letheringsett Mill there was time for a visit to Holt for some shopping in Bakers and Larners.

A trip to Davenports Magic Kingdom had everybody bewitched and bewildered with the amazing tricks (or is it really magic?). The evening saw us at Blickling Hall for drinks and canapés and a chance to walk round the garden.

After a free day on Sunday we had our Celebration Dinner at The Links Hotel, West Runton. The final full day saw us at Oxburgh Hall, where a few brave souls ventured into the Priests Hole. That evening we had supper in the Town Hall. Once again the French won the Bowling For The Pig. If we do not win it back soon it will forget its mother tongue.

Early Tuesday morning saw many bleary eyes and a few tearful ones as with much hugging and kissing we bade farewell to our visitors for another year.

The return visit next year will be from Thursday 7th July to Tuesday 12th July. Please make a note of these dates.

Sunday Lunch

Join us for a scrumptious lunch on Sunday 7th June at 12.30. Mike and Eileen Springall have kindly offered us the use of their lovely garden at 28 Holman Road, Aylsham for our use. The cost of this event is only £7.50 per head, fantastic value.

Please note: There is very limited parking at Mike and Eileen's so if at all possible please park in the Buttlands car park if arriving by car.

Please remember to bring your own drink and glasses and also on this occasion please bring your own plates and cutlery.

If you would like to come to the lunch please fill in the form in this newsletter and send it to Ruth by 22nd May.
