Aylsham-October 2018

This Years Visit

Everybody had a wonderful time and thoroughly enjoyed the visit. Old friendships were renewed and perhaps new ones made. The overnight stop on the journey out was very welcome and enabled everybody to arrive refreshed and ready for the activities. Congratulations to the Aylsham contingent who won the Pig. It is now sitting comfortably in its rightful home.

Lost property. A fitbit device was found on the coach. If you have lost one of these please contact Ruth.

Cromer Pier Christmas Show

There is still time to book your places for the show on the afternoon of Sunday 2nd December but do not delay as you need to reply by 22nd October at the very latest because we have to book and pay in advance.

Please contact Ruth if you would like to go.

Christmas Tree Festival

This year we will be joining in the Christmas Tree Festival and having our own tree in the Church. We will be having a French theme to the decorations. If anybody has any ideas or items they think could be used please contact Amanda.

Hogmanay

Once again we are offering Early Bird tickets for the Hogmanay party.

Come and see the New Year in to the sound of music by Barry Lee.

We are still keeping the price at £16.00 for Early Bird bookers. Book by 1st December for this amazing price, after that date the price will rise to £20. To book send the form to Ruth or email or phone her but payment must be made by 1st December for the reduced rate.

A donation to a local charity will be made from the raffle money.

Remember you need to bring your own food, drink, glasses and crockery.
