Walking Quiz Around Aylsham

We are holding another one of our famous (in Aylsham Twinning) Walking Quiz on Sunday 20th October so come and join us and test your local knowledge or you can just come for a nice walk around Aylsham.

Before setting off we will gather at The Friendship Hall at 2.00 p.m. for some liquid refreshment to set us up for the exertions to follow. This will be followed by a walking quiz around town which will be compiled by Roger Crouch. After all this effort we will finish with an afternoon tea back in The Friendship Hall.

You may take part in the quiz in groups or individually as you wish. If you are on your own just come along and join up with somebody else. I am sure they will welcome any help with open arms.

The cost of this is only £7.00 per person.

To enter please fill in the form in this newsletter and return to Ruth White by 5th October at the latest.

Garden Lunch

The Garden Lunch held at the home of Mike and Sue Bush was a great success and greatly enjoyed by all who attended. Many thanks to Mike and Sue for the use of their garden.

The Bowling for The Pig competition was won by Mike Springall. I am sure the pig will be very happy in his latest home.

Aylsham Show

The good weather drew the crowds out in force to this year's Aylsham Show. Our stall gave us the opportunity to explain the benefits of belonging to Aylsham twinning to many local people and generated a lot of interest.

Ten new members have signed up for Twinning and we are looking forward to seeing them at future events.

We also had the opportunity to publicise the Brocante which may well have helped with it's success.

All in all a very worthwhile venture and many thanks to those who helped on the day.

Brocante

This was a lovely morning with a great atmosphere. There were a lot of people milling around Blofield's Loke buying goods from the many stalls or just having a coffee and a cake. The people of Aylsham obviously appreciate a bargain.

A very successful event and well worth repeating in the future.
