Aylsham - September 2015

Saints and Sinners Evening

Some call it Halloween but we prefer to call it Saints and Sinners Evening. So what are you, are you a Saint or are you a Sinner?

Join us in The Friendship Hall on Saturday 31st October at 7.30 p.m. and we can decide what we think you really are. If you wish you can dress up as a Saint or as a Sinner, although this is entirely optional.

There will be plenty of saintly food and plenty of sinful food for your enjoyment, the choice is yours.

There will also be a competition based on the theme of the evening to keep you amused. All materials for this will be supplied.

The cost for this evening will be only £7.50 per person.

As usual remember to bring your own drink and glasses.

If you would like to come to the evening please fill in the form in this newsletter and send it to Ruth, or alternatively email her, by 17th October.

Summer Garden Lunch

This was a wonderfully enjoyable afternoon. The weather was kind, the food was delicious and the company excellent. What more could you ask for?

The Bowling For The Pig was won by Derek Bailey and the porker has taken pride of place in his conservatory. Look after it well Derek, we will need it next year.

Many thanks to Mike and Sue Bush for their hospitality and allowing us to use their lovely garden.

Brocante

Another successful Brocante took place in Blofields Loke.

The weather was good to us and there were many stalls selling a variety of goods with plenty of eager customers snapping up bargains or having some tea and cake and a good chinwag.

This looks as if it could become a regular feature of Aylsham life.
