Aylsham - September 2023

Town Street Party

The rain just before the start may have dampened the furniture but not our spirits. It was a very enjoyable event, especially as our German friends were with us.

Bastille Day Lunch.

A lovely afternoon of good food and drink and good conversation. The bowling for the pig was won by Charlotte Wootten who is now it's guardian until next year. Many thanks to Richard and Maureen Burr for the use of their wonderful garden and lots of rides on their garden train.

Future Events

Sunday Lunch Followed by Entertainment

On Sunday 15th October at 12.30 in The Friendship Hall we will be having a Sunday Lunch followed by 'Living Pictures of Blickling' a presentation by Liz Scott. Those of you who were at her previous appearance with us will know that she puts on a very entertaining show with plenty of laughs. A delicious lunch will also be provided. All this for only £15 per person. Remember that our events are open to non-members of twinning, so please bring along your friends for a fun afternoon.

Please remember to bring your own drink and glasses. If you would like to attend please fill in the form in this newsletter and send to Ruth or phone or email her by 29th September at the latest.

Quiz

On 18th November we will be holding a Quiz evening. More details to follow at a later date.

Wine tasting

On 1st December Father James Walsh will be hosting one of his now legendary wine tasting evenings. More details to follow in a later newsletter.
